The novel coronavirus, Covid-19, has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization. As a result, federal, state, and local governments and agencies recommend social distancing and have, in many locations prohibited the congregation of groups of people. We are doing everything we can to be compliant with all the regulations and ensure your safety. We have put in place preventive measures to reduce the spread of Covid-19, but we cannot guarantee that you will not become infected with Covid-19. By using the building or grounds or participating in programs, services, and activities of First Universalist Church of Yarmouth, you agree to the following:

On behalf of yourself and others in your group, you hereby release, covenant not to sue, discharge, and hold harmless First Universalist Church of Yarmouth, its employees, agents, and representatives, of and from all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs or expenses of any kind arising out of or relating to your use of the buildings or grounds or participation in programs, services, and activities. You understand and agree that this release includes any claims based on the actions, omissions, or negligence of this organization, its employees, agents, and representatives, whether a Covid-19 infection occurs before, during, or after such use or participation.
